

Members of the cast of Springbok Stampede were yesterday morning entertained to tea by the Mayor of Kimberley, Mr. J. P. Smit—and they promptly responded by entertaining the Mayor and other guests to a preview of their show. The selection of songs they sang was warmly applauded. Last night the show was staged in the Kimberley Theatre for the first time. In the picture, seen with the Mayor are (left to right) Helen Harrod of Potgietersrus, Merryl Christian of Durban and Cheryl Manson of Florida.
