

21 AUG 1966

DATE.....

SUNDAY EXPRESS JOHANNESBURG

M.R.A. was Cupid

● Charlotte Daneel and her fiancé, Anton Philips.

S.A. girl to marry millionaire's son

A ROMANCE which started in England and flourished during a tour of America has progressed a step further with the engagement in Pretoria of Charlotte Daneel, 22, to 34-year-old Anton Philips, son of the Dutch millionaire electronics magnate.

Miss Daneel, the daughter of a Pretoria Nederduitse Gereformeerde Kerk minister, met Mr. Philips when both were doing moral rearmament work.

She has two younger sisters. He is the eldest of seven children and is the advertising manager of "Pace," the moral rearmament journal.

Miss Daneel said in Pretoria yesterday that she and Mr. Philips first met in England when she went to do moral rearmament work immediately after leaving the Afrikaanse Hoër Meisieskool, Pretoria.

Their friendship deepened during a tour of the United States with the M.R.A. "Sing-out 66" show.

Mr. Philips flew out to South Africa to announce the engagement.

Said Miss Daneel: "I am thrilled. He is a wonderful man and we are tentatively planning to get married in Pretoria in January next year. I am flying to Holland in September to meet his family."