

MZA
29 APR 1977

RHODESIA HERALD

A MORAL Re-Armament team of 25 people from 15 countries arrived in Salisbury yesterday from South Africa.

The group will present "Time to Choose"—a collection of songs, convictions and sketches—at the Courtaulds Theatre tonight.

A spokesman for the team said they had met at the conference centre for Moral Re-Armament in Switzerland last August and decided to take a year away from their jobs and studies to make music and "enlist everyone in the battle to build a hate-free, fear-free, greed-free world".

ABOVE: After their arrival some members of the group sang in the garden of Mr and Mrs Peter Hosken's home in Borrowdale.