'Springbok Stampede' show at Hartswater

FOUR Magogong people, who have just returned from the United States, will appear in the cast of the show, "Springbok Stampede," to be staged in the Hartswater Town Hall tonight.

Brother and sister, Helen and Pieter Horn, William du Toit and Gerrit Steyn recently attended the "sing-out world conference" in New York. They told of their experiences at a braaiivleis held in Hartswater last night.

There are 10 Magogong people in the 50-strong cast of the show and four of these people are of the same family, a family of which Pieter and Helen are members.

"Springbok Stampede" is sponsored by the Moral Re-armament Movement, who have already done 65 shows. The choreography for the show was done by Gordon Wales, who was involved in the production of the stage version of West Side Story.

Miss J. Hopcraft is the musical director of the show.
