

BANTU WORLD

SOUTH AFRICA'S ONLY

NATIONAL AFRICAN NEWSPAPER

SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1953

EIGHT LEADERS CONGRATULATE DR. BUCHMAN

Dr. Frank Buchman, founder of Moral Re-Armament, originally known as the Oxford Group, turned 75 years old on June 4. Below is a message of congratulations he has received from prominent Africans:

“hearts of the yearning African millions.”

Dr. W. F. Nkomo, a founder, African National Congress Youth League; Dr. J. M. Nhlapo, Editor, Bantu World; Rev. L. R. Mahabane, President, South African Unity

Barima Otuo Achampong I. Senior Paramount Chief and Admiral of the Fleet of the Gold Coast (left) and his brother (centre) were two of the principal guests at a reception in Olive House, the London headquarters of Moral Re-Armament. The host was Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman (right), founder of Moral Re-Armament.

“We congratulate you on your 75th birthday. We have keenly followed your struggle to bring about the new world here in Africa where God has placed people from various races to live and work together like the fingers of a hand.

“We need God-inspired leadership and we will not rest until your message reaches the Movement; Rev. S. M. Mokiti-mi, Principal, Osborne Institute; Mr. J. M. Mohlala, Chairman, Advisory Board, Kwathema Township, Springs; Mr. R. V. Selope Thema, Ex-Editor, Bantu World; Rev. O. S. D. Mooki, President, South African Location Advisory Boards Congress.