

The Star

* *

JOHANNESBURG, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1951

Returning From Re-armament Assembly

Mr. Bremer Hofmeyr (left), the South African delegate to the Moral Re-Armament Assembly in Washington recently, returns to Johannesburg this afternoon. He is shown here chatting with Mr. Robert Carmichael, president of the Jute Manufacturers' Association of France (centre), and Major-General S. Kirby, former Deputy Chief-of-Staff in the Control Commission for Germany. The theme of the assembly was "An Ideology that can win the World," and 1,500 delegates from 25 nations attended the sessions.