

'Stampede' won city's hearts

Pietermaritzburg Bureau

THE ENTHUSIASTIC young cast of Springbok Stampede hit Pietermaritzburg with a lively bang on Tuesday night and gave a non-stop polished performance that won the hearts of young and old alike.

The music of these men and women, who represent a new generation, is born of today's dynamic spirit, and their aim, which they carried out with great gusto, was to explode this spirit into positive action.

Most of their tunes had very catchy beats, and their backing was good. Three tunes that went down well with the audience were "Gee, I'm Looking Forward to the Future," "Up With People," and "Reach for the Stars."

The group has cut a record, and discs are available from the cast during the show.

They are due to make a public appearance in Durban at the Lyric Theatre later this month.
