That is Moral Re-Armament—when a man can go in and want nothing for himself but to think only of the good of the nation.

That's what I want.
To be in touch with the Holy Spirit—
for a world in a very serious situation.

Your job is to do for your nation what the government ought to be doing.

You've got to get to the point where the future of Britain may be decided under God's plan.

Make Jesus your personal friend—and the personal friend of every statesman.

'Morning by morning
He gives me the ear of the learned.'
I acted on it.
It shaped the course of my life.

When I first began I'd listen ten and talk five.
If you persist, God will speak to you constantly.

If you hand over the reins to God and let Him run the show—how mightily
He does it.
He cares for your every need.

It's the Higher Force.
Something that descends.
Guidance.

He told me, step by step, what to do.

The quiet time.
When I let God say 'Hullo' to me.
He does sometimes. Why not?

It's amazing the accuracy you can place upon guidance.

You need to make Jesus Christ your ideology.
The simple miracle of being washed, made upright and consecrated by the power of Jesus Christ.

It's the answer.
They're beginning to realise it.
It is the answer.

It's so comforting to be guided about each thing.
It takes the grime out of life.

The Oxford Group is one thing;
paramount is mining men to remake
a nation.

God has the plan—yet we multiply plans.
God-prepared instruments are there.
One step enough for me.

Don't follow me—follow Him.

Pray that we may not fear to do the maximum.

Done with ourselves—and able to transmute this answer into the life of nations.

Faith is something that nourishes you twenty-four hours a day.
And keeps you normal and guided.

So live that God can speak to you at any hour of the day or night.

It is the day-to-day care for people to which I have given my life.
The event is in the hand of God.

We must be in daily and God-filled touch with people—or we shall not touch the fringe of the problems which face us.

I do not want anyone to leave here without a strategy.
Live a strategy—or you will damn
the work.

The primary thing—the moral and ideological power of the person next to me for remaking the world.

A related whole—so related that you need never do the same old things again.

This is Christ's work—and God help you if you try doing it.

When people come to you, on their own accord, and tell you things they hav^en't told anybody, this is the beginning of real friendship.

My prayer for you is that you bring someone every day to a mature experience of Jesus Christ.

We must bring the supernatural God to the man in the street.

Do you expect total commitment to be the result of your work with men?
Do you go out to men in that way?
With the drastic and deep love that demands a drastic change?
Then you are doing the most necessary work in the world today.
Nothing equals it.
Nothing is more important.
It is the work from heart to heart.

I maintain friendships.

We are too late for anything but plain talk with each other.

Do not lend yourself to any programme that is not aimed at changing people.

If you are under the spell of the Holy Spirit, and if you get complete unity—what will the plan be?

We need a composite mind.

Don't ever let's get hurt.
It's a sign of not having gone all-out.

He will hold us fast—if we let Him.

You've got to deal with the things that you want to do more than to change people.

A strategy to win people.
Too few of you have this.

Don't push people.
Really win them.
Without salesmanship and pressure.
But with conviction—and with the unity of the force.

Go straight into the difficulties of the people you meet.
Wanting to do it is not enough.
You must do it.
Not the studied English approach.

We've got to go like a river.

Are we doing a fundamental work with each other?

A lot of us are floating.

When each of you stands on his own feet, I will know that this work will go on.

God help us if we are not going to be in that power-stream.

Let's get out into the world.
What are your objectives?

In two or three minutes—down to people's problems.

Half my time has been taken pulling the cork for bottled-up people.

Give people God's love—not your own.

How can you help people if you give them a half-truth?

I have never tried to 'influence'
anybody in my life.

Stand behind the men of conviction.

We've been caught short in telling nations the truth and that is why they are sliding.

God help me to be firm and instant
when anything goes wrong.

You miss the regal tone God gives a nation.

We need to compass the earth with our thinking.

Jesus coming into our hearts is the real thing.
'All I have I give to Jesus.
I surrender all.'

He speaks in such a quiet, modulated voice—you just know it is God.
That's the thing to which I have given my life.

I nailed myself to the Cross—and have stayed there.

You will hear the still, small voice—
the greatest possession in life.

That will give you the normalcy you need.
And you won't care what they say.

This is the answer.
If you believed this you wouldn't be after anything less than the top men giving everything.

I'll tell you how I've done it.
It hasn't been me.
Always there's been that thought—that divine thought.
The Holy Spirit.
Just dropping His truth.
Giving you the idea.

We need to put our hand into the hand of God—and He leads.

Men and women simply with a touch of divine power.

You have to live with the programme of reconstructing nations uppermost in your mind.

The strategy is convinced personalities.

If I had my time again, I would do nothing except the essentials.

When I die, you must relate the message to the world.

Waiting and watching for the living God to break through the shadows of the night.

I came to know the Holy Spirit as the light, guide, teacher and the power.

What I am able to do, I do through the power that comes in the early hours of morning quiet.

I havn't got anything except what God gives me.
They're pearls.

It all comes down to whether miracles happen around us or not.
