NEW MRA TRAINING CENTRES

FROM mountain hill stations on opposite sides of the globe comes news of plans to build two more Moral Re-Armament training centres.

A declaration from the residence of former President Marshall Dutra states that a Brazilian Association for Moral Re-Armament has been legally established in Petropolis in the State of Rio de Janeiro.

And in Asia 20 acres at Panchgani have been dedicated for the building of Asia's second Moral Re-Armament centre. Construction begins in July, when the monsoon ends, on the site, surrounded by majestic cliffs and overlooking 60 miles of the Krishna Valley and Western Ghats Mountains.

Hindi, Marathi and English-speaking students from all over India have volunteered to work in the project during their holidays and weekends.
