

RE-INFORCEMENTS JOIN OXFORD GROUP

Here are prominent members of the Oxford Group Movement who arrived yesterday from England to join their fellow workers here, snapped as they registered at the King Edward: (1) Bill Brown of Oxford on the left with Commander Sir Walter Wyndham, famous Britisher. (2) Miss Mary Richmond, daughter of Admiral Sir Herbert Richmond. (3) Miss M. Forster who is a sister of Brigadier-General Forster. (4) L. K. Ford and (5) Professor L. W. Grensted, both of Oxford. (6) Rev. R. C. Thompson, Oxford, Toc-H padre in London. (7) Miss E. Gairdner, a daughter of the well-known English missionary, Temple Gairdner of Cairo, Egypt. (8) Brian Sturdy, former football captain at Cambridge university. (9) Charles Kirkham, a Hollander now living in Geneva. (10) Miss C. M. Morrison, don at Oxford. (11) and (12) Reginald Owbridge and Rev. E. H. Wade, both from Cambridge.