344	Carrard, M. Jean	Caux	We are here to search for the next step for our life and for our country. The Swiss like to solve problems so we do not speak about them any more, but the Jura does not seem to go to this line. Questions; Who never went to the Jura? Who in these last months went to the Jura to meet people? the political life seems to fill a certain emptiness. Everybody meets each other young and old. People need to give themselves to a passion, the trouble is that ix it is often hate. Each small things that we learn can help others. What counts is not perfection, but honesty. As long as I feel superior to somebody I cannot help them.
363	Zysset, Mlle Amie	Reconvilier	quiet time and free share.
391 393	Carrard, M. Jean Joss, M. Lix	Schaffhausen	put this question to a national level; Bern has always the same attitude everywhere. To recognise ones own mistakes so as to let God come in and operate a miracle. Do we believe God can speak to each one of the leaders?
412	Schafer, Mme H.	Luzern	We want to have lots of qualities, but do not want to see the other dark side. More we try to become "good", more we fail. This exists everywhere, but in the Jura it is bursting out. Fear comes from reactions because we do not understand what is happening. The whole Europe goes this same phase.
440	Piguet, M. Charles	Montreux	Minorities are going to speak more and more, like in Spain. The Indians from Canada were able to speak and were listen to when they came; it is the authority they have. How could we best inform people.
456 461 473 480	Carrard, Mme Hegi, M. Peter Steiner, Mme Kohler, Mme	Caux Bern Jura Jura (nord)	If we resolve in a democratic way what is happening in the Jura, it will be an example for all the extremists organisations.
489	Räber, M.	Moutier	It must change and first we need to get a better relationship with God.
