252	PATRICK ALEXANDER	South Africa	Situation of the non-white people in South Africa. We need to build bridges and more the problems are big, more the bridges need to be big. If we accept to be guided by God, answers will be found. MRA is an ideology which can help South Africa. We do not want a change that comes from outside, but one that comes from SA, from the government, the people. We need to get united under the same banner and it is urgent. WE, black, accepted white customs so greedily that we do not think possible without white man. Exploitation in his family, his father and they separated. Corruption still existed after the divorce. My father did not change, but I changed. What we need is a solution that can come into our hearts.
278	MR. ASHLEY CLOOETE	South Africa	there is also a positive point to exploitation. He lives in Europe but wants to start the change here. Situation in his family, how he exploited his wife. The lack of knowledge is not an excuse to do nothing. For the white to loose their superiorities to share their knowledge with the black. Nationalism is not an answer. The answer is to exploit the positive side of potential in the blacks and whites.

Many resources come from the mountains where the laps were and we destroyed their way of life. As long as we go on, we have no right to condemn SA. In Europe where we've got so much we have something to it give, and it is the care for others. Materialism is not the thing we have to offer.
