

Toron to Er. Jule 3 round 14 132 Eighteen New Arrivals Bishop's Son, Include Daughter of Admiral and Dutch Expert

"life changers," Reinforcements of 18 of them, arrived in Toronto to the first team of join the Oxford Group.

The press formed a sort of reception committee on the 17th floor of the King Edward. The members of the fresh team were introduced, and each handed over a prepared type-written statement saying who he or she was, and how conversion to the Group took place.

5

Among the newcomers are an ad-miral's daughter, a bishop's son, four dons from Oxford and Cambridge, a Dutch expert in international affairs, a pioneer aviator and former King's messencer and corrent provide an and the source of the source messenger, and seven young graduates of Cambridge and Oxford. Canon L. W. Grensted, of Oxford.

W. Grensted, of Oxford, the leader. the leader, said they would be in To-ronto for about a week. Plans? They were "under guidance," he said.

were "under guidance, no back WAS REVELATION TO HER. Miss Mary Richmond, daughter of Admiral Sir Herbert Richmond, K.C. B. a charming young woman in B. B. a charming young woman in tweed, described her meeting with the group in Cairo. "I'd always failed to find the mes-sage of the church personally stress tive," her statement

"I'd always failed to find the mes-sage of the church personally effec-tive," her statement read. "Here I saw people who had a loy and pur-poss in life that I'd seen flowhere else, and as a result of my contact with them I am going to be con-firmed in the church in the near them I am going i in the church it r firmed in future. Although it meant leaving my family at home Christmas, I do feel that the power of God is the only thing that can help the world to-day." day.

day." Bobble hawstone is a son of the Bishop of Whalley, and was edu-cated at Eton and Oxford. ATHLETE COULD'N'T RUN OWN LIFE "I had achieved some success in thistics having represented the inithe

"That achieved, some success in athletics, having represented the uni-versity in the relay team against Ox-ford, but had found very little suc-cess in running my own life," con-fetsed R. C. H. Owbridge, of Cambridge.

1

bridge.
"I was just a happy young mah about town living from pleasure to pleasure, excitement to excitement," stated Charlie Kirkham, of Zurich... Others in the party included Miss Kirstie Mcrrison, tutor of a women's college, Oxford; Rev. Eustace H.
Wade, chaplain of Downing Col-lege, Cambridge; Rev. Alan Thorn-hill, chaplain and fellow of Hertford College; Rev. Ronald C. Thompson, formerly ef Oxford, new working in Toc H by the Tower, in London; Miss Eleanor Gairdner, B.A., daughter of Temple Gairdner, of Cairo, who for the past two years taught at a girls' school in Bristel; and Andre Wurf-bain, from Geneva. man from Geneva,